Forthcoming Monthly Speaker Meetings

Monthly speaker meetings are held at 1:45pm on the second Tuesday of the month in Burton Joyce & Bulcote Village Hall, Trent Lane, Burton Joyce, NG14 5EY. The speaker's talk is followed by tea, coffee and cakes. Visitors are very welcome and may attend two meetings without charge or obligation to join. Please arrive in good time as latecomers can make it difficult for others to hear the announcements.

Information about future Speaker Meetings can be found at <https://bju3a.co.uk/events/>

Tuesday 9th June – Sara Dellar “The Sleeper Train to Haridwar”

An illustrated talk on Anglo – Indian history. It traces Sara's family's economic migration to India, mixing online research into family history from 1908 to 1939, as well as travels to India to bring that research to life. Lacking a birth certificate, the starting point was a squiggle in a passport in bringing together the story of how the family ended up living in India and where they lived. Sara gives a PowerPoint presentation full of pictures of her travels and research which bring to life her father's and grandparent's stories.

Tuesday 14th July – Stephen Booth “The Psychology of Murder”

Stephen is a locally-based award-winning crime writer whose 15 novels, set in the atmospheric and beautiful Peak District in Derbyshire, are based on the detective pairing of two young police detectives from Derbyshire named DS Diane Fry and DC Ben Cooper. A TV series, “Cooper and Fry”, based on the books, was screened on Channel 5 in November 2025.

During his early career, Stephen had been a teacher; he then entered journalism as a reporter covering rugby. Later assignments were wide ranging, from reporting on village Women's Institute meetings to coverage of the hunt for the Yorkshire Ripper. He has said that working on the serial murder case had a direct influence on his leap to fiction writing. He began to look at the subject in a new light when his wife pointed out that even he could be a suspect in the case, and that she could not provide him with an alibi during the hours he worked the night shift!

SWANS (Short Walks and No Stiles) Walking Group

A guided walk through the Historical town of Southwell

With an eager group of “SWANS” walkers, we set off, soon passing alongside Coghill Court retired peoples’ accommodation, our first stop being at Holy Trinity church, where Canon Ernest Arthur Coghill (1890-1941), was much loved by his congregation for his kindness and generosity, abolishing pew rents in 1907, this church gave an alternative to the higher order of services at the Southwell Minster.

This beautifully erected, spired church was built by raising funds from public donations in 1844, at a cost of £2,600, having received the princely sum of £2,000 from one wealthy resident, Mrs Catherine Heathcote. That sum is equivalent to £340,000 today. Walking on in a snake patrol, up a few steps along a ginnel, we arrived at “Lowes Wong” road, lined with private houses. Evidently Mr Lowe, and his family were tenants in a Dunham Prebendal House during the 1700s and 1800s. The house overlooked open unfenced land, known as a 'Wong', hence the name Lowes Wong. We now have a primary school on the site called Lowes Wong School.

Onwards, passing through an archway of the “Saracens Head” historic 12th-15th century coaching inn, renowned as the site where King Charles 1st spent his last night of freedom before surrendering to the Scots in 1646. We wended our way along Queens Street to the Bull Yard of the then “Bull Inn”, a bustling centre for commercial and social gatherings.

Progressing along King street we passed the “Minster Tap” a new micro pub with a variety of draught beers including the Hawkstone beer from Jeremy Clarkson’s brewery. Our next port of call was the very well protected Potwell Dyke grasslands, one of the oldest managed meadows in the land, being the last remaining area of the Archbishop of York’s hunting ground, but more notably known for it's 5 different orchids, and over 200 different species of wild flowers growing there, a sight to behold !

This was a great informative walk, finishing up at The Hearty Good Fellow pub, for a welcome drink and delicious lunch. We're a friendly group, why not give the SWANS walking group a try next month, it will be a different area of interest.
